Support The Cooperage Project: Invest in the Places Where Community Happens

At The Cooperage Project, we believe strong communities are built through connection. Every week, our programs and events bring together youth, families, seniors, artists, musicians, and neighbors of all ages to learn, create, gather, and share experiences. From afterschool STEAM programs and senior gatherings to live music, arts programming, the Main Street Farmers Market, and community events, The Cooperage is a place where people come together and feel like they belong.

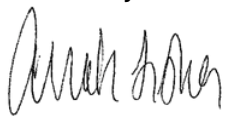

Local businesses are an important part of making that possible. When businesses invest in The Cooperage Project, they are investing not only in our organization, but in the people and community around them. Your support helps us keep programs accessible, create opportunities for people of all ages, and provide a welcoming place where connections are made. It also helps build the kind of vibrant, engaged community where local businesses can thrive.

As we look toward 2027, we invite you to partner with The Cooperage Project. Your sponsorship provides meaningful support for the programs and experiences that make our community stronger, while giving us the opportunity to recognize and celebrate the local businesses that help make our work possible.

We hope you'll join us in building a more connected, creative, and welcoming community.

Together, we can continue creating opportunities for people of all ages to gather, discover something new, and find their place in the community!

Gratefully,

Arrah Fisher
